

2007 Grant Awards

J. M. Tate Senior High School, Cantonment. This project introduces 10th grade history students to the Colonial history of Pensacola. $1000.00

Eagles Landing Middle School, Boca Raton. A mini seminar designed for local teachers to become familiar with issues of media literacy. $1000.00

ALC Central Middle School, Fort Myers. Middle school students combine geography, art, music, and holiday celebrations to learn about traditions of Latin American peoples. $1000.00

Blanche Ely High School, Pompano Beach. Students and teachers use a text to increase students' basic information about the Haitian culture. $774.00

Dr. Michael M. Krop Senior High School, Miami. Tenth grade gifted students learn about Eastern culture and philosophy. $1000.00

Nonprofit Center of Northeast Florida, Jacksonville. A series of conversations with philanthropic and nonprofit leaders explores topics of giving and serving. $2000.00

Friends of De Leon Springs State Park, De Leon Springs. Two permanent exhibit panels examine slavery in Florida and the contributions of enslaved Africans to the development of NE. $2000.00

Cinderic Documentaries, Inc., DeLand. Oral histories and a photo exhibit explore the history of the Seville Public School. $2000.00

Largo Public Library, Largo. Four humanities lectures inform participants about Florida's cultural heritage. $2000.00

Holocaust Memorial Resource and Education Center of Florida, Inc., Maitland. In conjunction with an exhibit, a public program, explores contemporary prejudices. $2000.00

African Caribbean Dance Theatre, Inc., Tallahassee. A program expands the content of a successful annual dance festival to include the area of literature. $2000.00

Museum of Art/Ft. Lauderdale, Ft. Lauderdale. Two scholar lectures with a historian and panel discussions with Cuban American artists. $2000.00

Carter G. Woodson Committee for Positive Education of Jax, Inc., Jacksonville. A scholar presentation, CD, and exhibit on the role of African Americans in the Civil War. $2000.00

Dr. Carter G. Woodson African American Museum, St. Petersburg. Two former Tuskegee airmen join exhibit designers and historians for a conversation about the Tuskegee Airmen. $2000.00

West Florida Historic Preservation, Inc. Pensacola. A DVD created and distributed details the history, preservation, and restoration of a historic house. $2000.00

The Treasures of Madison County, Inc., Madison. A narrated walking tour of Madison is produced and delivered for duplication and distribution. $2000.00

2007 Grant Awards

Hillsborough Reads, Tampa. A series of scholar-led discussions explore the meaning of service with members of AmeriCorp. $1500.00

WJCT-TV Channel 7, Jacksonville. A half-hour documentary uses the Jacksonville bridges to tell the story of Jacksonville development. $25,000.00

WEDU TV, Tampa. A half-hour studio-based round-table discussion follows the airing of the statewide documentary. $9900.00

Flagler College, St. Augustine. A weekend program brings writers - past and present - to examine the significant role St. Augustine plays in attracting and inspiring writers. $8675.00

Studios of Key West, Key West. A series of lecture programs on artists and writers who lived and worked in the Keys. $23,300.00

Reflections of Manatee, Inc., Bradenton. A full-day program brings together historians and archaeologists with the general public to explore the history of the Manatee Mineral Springs area. $14,347.00

Reflections of Manatee, Inc., Bradenton. A full-day program brings together historians and archaeologists with the general public to explore the history of the Manatee Mineral Springs area. $14,347.00

Okeechobee County Public Library, Okeechobee. Scholars, artists, musicians, and storytellers are featured in 5 programs about Florida's history and culture. $3,000.00

Clewiston Museum, Clewiston. This new Partnership grantee proposes 4 programs that will be held at the new Clewiston Museum featuring the people and history of Florida. $3,000.00

Delray Beach Historical Society, Inc., Delray Beach. A series of 4 lectures from January thru April propose topics that include Florida music, historic gardens, city planning, and Florida environment. $3,000.00

The Studio@620, Saint Petersburg. In conjunction with a folk art exhibit, this Partnership Grant proposes 4 public programs on the topic. $3,000.00

Shepherd of the Hills Episcopal, Beverly Hills. This new Partnership Grant evolved from a successful Mini Grant and proposes 4 public programs on aspects of Florida history. $3,000.00

Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church, Lake Worth. This grant focuses on comparative religion and offers 4 programs exploring questions related to recent archaeological findings and early Christianity. $3,000.00

National Park Service, Jacksonville. This Partnership Grant has moved from a one-day festival to a series of programs that occur each Saturday in February. $3,000.00

Ormond Beach Historical Trust, Inc., Ormond Beach. Local and state history is covered by a series of 8 programs scheduled for this Partnership Grant. $3,000.00

2007 Grant Awards

American Association of Univeristy Women - Niceville, Niceville. Four lecture programs will take place at both the OWC campus and at the Heritage Museum. $3,000.00

Saint Augustine Art Association, Saint Augustine. Using the city of St. Augustine as point of reference, this project offers a minimum of 4 programs that examine eras and practitioners of art related to the city. $3,000.00

Winter Park Historical Association, Winter Park. In collaboration with the library, the Historical Association proposes a series of monthly programs from Oct. thru March that feature a wide range of humanities topics all centered on Florida. $3,000.00

Tavares Public Library, Tavares. Five programs feature various cultural aspects of Hispanic heritage including Mexican, Puerto Rican, and Cuban. $3,000.00

Sarasota Reading Festival, Sarasota. The annual festival features a FHC-funded panel discussion on the role of the press in a democratic society. $2,000.00

University of South Florida - St. Petersburg, Saint Petersburg. Popular nature writer Susan Cerulean offers a public presentation, nature walk at Weedon Island, and writing workshop. $900.00

Creative Clay, Saint Petersburg. Three programs, offered as part of the St. Petersburg Folk Art Fest, include a scholar, a storyteller, folk artist, anthropologist and dancer. $2,000.00

Saint Augustine Historical Society, Saint Augustine. Leading scholars hold a symposium on the earlier North American settlements of La Florida. $2,000.00

Friends of Wild Iris, Gainesville. Capitalizing on the recent popularity of the best seller "The Secret" a panel discussion explores the religious and philosophical traditions of the work. $700.00

University of Central Florida Library, Orlando. A community-wide commemoration of the publication of Kerouac's "On the Road" includes an exhibit and public programs. $1,500.00

Matheson Museum, Gainesville. This project brings author and scholar Dr. Rosalyn Howard for a public program on the Black Seminoles. $700.00

Bonita Springs Historical Society, Bonita Springs. Following a successful first year of programming another round of 4 public programs that focus on the Florida landscape is offered. $2,000.00

St. Pete Beach Library, Saint Petersburg. This project offers reading discussions, a screening of the film "Flash of Green," and a panel discussion the film maker and crew. $2,000.00

Paragon Ladies of the Dove, Incorporated, Florida City. A visit and several programs by the James Weldon Johnson Chautauqua character is offered at 4 venues. $2,000.00

2007 Grant Awards

Amelia Book Island Festival, Inc. , Fernandina Beach. The annual book festival features a panel discussion facilitated by Socky O'Sullivan with Florida authors discussing the changing Florida landscape. $2,000.00

Memorial Regional Hospital, Hollywood. A five-part, literature-based, discussion program designed for hospital employees will address critical issues in the medical field today. $1500

Memorial Hospital West, Pembroke Pines. A five-part, literature-based, discussion program designed for hospital employees will address critical issues in the medical field today. $1500

Memorial Hospital Pembroke, Pembroke Pines. A five-part, literature-based, discussion program designed for hospital employees will address critical issues in the medical field today. $1500

Florida Cultural Resources, Gainesville. A traveling exhibition and panel discussion about Florida cattle ranching framed in terms of continuity and change. $25,000

Flagler College, Saint Augustine. A 2-day conference brings national scholars in history and archaeology to discuss the unique Spanish, British, and American history of the area. $7000

Cummer Museum Of Art & Gardens, Jacksonville. A series of programs explores multiple aspects of the St. Johns. $16, 654

Bayside High School, Clearwater. Four educational trunks will be assembled with material objects appropriate for teaching St. Augustine history. $1000

Riverview High School, Sarasota. A folklife project creates classroom activities which bring traditional artists to the students. $1000

Booker Middle School, Sarasota. Training for teachers and students to collect folk history in traditional African American communities. $775

West Shore Jr/Sr High School, Melbourne. Combining history and theater arts to teach the history of Florida and monologue writing. $1000

Miami-Killian Sr. High, Miami. Art historians provide analysis and interpretation of Hispanic art that reflects historic and contemporary social issues. $1000

Friends of the Myakka River, Inc., Sarasota. Three humanities programs are held at one of the park's historic buildings during January through March. $2,000.00.

Florida Foresight, Inc., Panacea. Five public lectures relevant to the maritime history and culture of the Big Bend area take place from January through May. $2,000.00.

Art Center Manatee, Bradenton. A scholar presentation and discussion of the impact and reflection of the Florida environment by artists. $750.00.

Tale Tellers of Saint Augustine, St. Augustine. A second series of stories are researched and presented focusing on the Civil War era. $2,000.00.

2007 Grant Awards

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Gulf Breeze. A public program and a brochure are developed commemorating aviators experiences during war. $2,000.00.

Kissimmee Main Street Program, Inc. Kissimmee. A Florida folksinger and storyteller will present at the annual festival commemorating the founding of Kissimmee. $1,500.00.

Friends of the Bruton Memorial Library, Plant City. A film series with scholar-led discussions is proposed for the months January-April. $2,000.00.

Bartow Airbase Historical Museum, Bartow. A walking tour brochure and a public program are created to build awareness of the new airbase museum. $2,000.00.

Peace River Center for Writers, Punta Gorda. A series of programs uses the "Poets in Person" audiocassette package to explore poetry of the 20th Century. $2,000.00.

Friends of the Museums of Florida History, Tallahassee. Two public scholar lectures on the Seminoles support the current exhibit on the same topic. $2,000.00.

Center for Inquiry Community of Tallahassee, Tallahassee. A full-day program of scholar lectures and panel discussion examine Darwin's impact on our social institutions. $2,000.00.