

Sample Civic Reflection Grants

In Milton, the Retired Senior Volunteer program held a series of programs that focused on politics, voting, community service and volunteerism.

A scholar-led series of discussions in Tallahassee explored challenges faced in trying to improve community life.

Programs held in Jacksonville and Orlando were designed to create stronger connections among the local nonprofit community. Local leaders were refreshed and reinvigorated, capable of thinking through, and articulating, both the challenges and the joy of their work.

AmeriCorps programs in Tampa and Melbourne engaged community volunteers and addressed questions about the importance of service to individuals and the community. Participants developed a richer, in-depth appreciation of the meaning of community service.

Programs in Sarasota & Broward Counties bring together employees of hospital systems to explore the difficulties, rewards, and ethical dilemmas that face health care workers.