

Dear Ann:

I would like to thank you and the Florida Humanities Council for all of the wonderful workshops that you have provided for us. Since I have been in my position, our teachers have attended the Harlem Renaissance and Modern Florida day-long workshops. I was able to attend both of these and thought that they were outstanding. The teachers that attended these workshops also only had extremely positive things to say. In fact, the questions that I got after both of these workshops was "when are they coming back?" Both workshops were extremely well organized and the trainers were extremely knowledgeable. In addition to these two programs I am aware that FHC also partnered with Broward County on a Teaching American History grant that encompassed three years of one-day workshops: "Democracy in Florida" in 2002, "Broward County Then and Now" in 2003, and "World War II: The Home Front" and "Havens in the Storm: A Look at African American Communities" in 2004.

I would highly recommend your workshops to any organization. Please feel free to have individuals contact me if they have a question about your workshops. I am more than happy to give a recommendation.

Thanks again for everything Ann. I look forward to working with you in the future on another training.
